New Shock Levels More Houses at Tokio, Is Report; Half Burned Imperial Palace
Open to Fear-Stunned Refugees

JAPANESE DISASTER SUMMARY

Cities of Tokio and Yokohama devastated by earthquake, fire, typhoon and tidal wave. New quakes reported. Hundreds of sea coast cities and towns within a radius of 100 miles destroyed. Conservative estimates place death toll at more than 100,000. Millions are homeless. Martial law proclaimed in Tokio. Six Korean looters shot. Tens of thousands of buildings reduced to debris and burned. Hundreds of thousands of refugees fleeing to open country. Communication and transportation paralyzed. Water supplies of Tokio and Yokohama cut off. Famine threatened. Tons of rice sent from Osaka. Relief movement started. American Asiatic fleet ordered to Japan to give assistance. Merchant vessels ordered from Osaka and Kobe. Gigantic task of burial of dead under way. Two additional earth shocks of violent severity struck Japan today. Tidal wave destroyed seaport Odawara without leaving a trace, sank steamship Lima Maru in Yokohama harbor. Princes Yamahama and Kayoo killed in falling ruins.

MANILA, Sept. 3.—Latest reports reaching here of the Japanese horror say that a gigantic tidal wave washed the sea coast town of Odawara to its doom without leaving a trace. Thousands were killed. At Tokio the half-burned imperial palace is being thrown open to as many fear-stunned refugees as can crowd into the structure. The Grand hotel at Yokohama is a total wreck. Appalling death loss was confirmed at more than 100,000. Fires in Tokio and Yokohama continue to rage with unabated fury, spreading indescribable pandemonium. Sky-high flames are visible for miles around the disaster area. Thirty-nine warships are steaming under forced draught for Yokohama from Osaka and Kobe, carrying relief to the horror region. Princes Yamahama and Kayoo are reported dead as the result of being crushed under falling debris. A new shock late today destroyed 500 houses in Tokio. Hundreds of foreigners are included among the dead. The buildings are being blown up in desperate attempts to check the uncontrolled blast of flame which continues spreading violent destruction in the stricken cities of Tokio and Yokohama. The eastern and northern sections of Tokio are totally wiped out. Thousands upon thousands of bodies are being piled up by dazed rescue workers and are being consumed in the advancing whirlwind of fire.

UNIVERSAL PITY AND CHARITY NEEDS BE SHOWN SUFFERERS

TODAY the civilized world looks with pity on stricken Japan, island empire of the Pacific, as it emerges from the throes of the greatest tragedy ever enacted in history of man! Little is known of Nippon, yet Glendale has a heart interest in Tokio where friends and relatives of some of our residents reside. According to International News Service bulletins received yesterday afternoon and evening Tokio, Yokohama and other great cities are destroyed, while villages and towns were engulfed by the greatest combination of elements—earthquake, tidal wave, typhoon and fire. Japan, as the empire is known, is composed of a group of islands of volcanic origin—mountainous country, with dormant craters, beautiful waterfalls, deep bays and a sultry climate. Lagoons and other freaks of nature have been caused by previous earthquakes, several hundred severe tremors having taken place in the last 1500 years. The first great catastrophe occurred in 869, as far as history relates, and thousands of people perished. In 1498 an earthquake caused the death of 20,000; in 1792, at Hizen, 15,000 people were killed and 27,000 died in the Sanriku district in 1896. As a result the people are superstitious, listening to the rumbling mountains and living in the fear of being swallowed by the earth which has nurtured their race to a total of more than 60,000,000 population. It may be safely said that 100,000 dead is a most conservative estimate when aviators flying from Osaka report that both Tokio and Yokohama, as well as neighboring towns, lie in ruins, their four or five million residents homeless and dead, dying, starving, crazed human beings scattered, burned, drowned; yes, buried alive under toppling mountains. Words utterly fail to convey the human mind finds it hard to comprehend just what has occurred. But to the residents of the district around Tokio bay it must appear as though "the end of the world has come." And being a fatalistic race there is no reason to doubt that those who are living do so with the terror of animals before the slaughter. Japan has been subject to epidemics in which as many as 50,000 died from cholera. As one writer has said in terms which fit this occasion, "the aspect of nature in Japan comprises a variety of (Continued on Page 8)

King George in Message Offers His Sympathy

LONDON, Sept. 3.—King George sent the following message of condolence to the Japanese emperor today: "I hasten to express the horror with which I learned of the appalling disaster which has befallen your people. I sympathize profoundly with your majesty in this overwhelming catastrophe." British warships have left Hong Kong to give assistance to refugees.

SHORTAGE OF JOBS ENGLAND'S EVIL

Extreme Measures Likely to Be Applied Next Winter
In Solving Problem

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
For International News Service
LONDON, Sept. 3.—The spectre of gaunt hordes of hunger-marchers—members of England's army of unemployed—is haunting the holidays of British ministers. With Parliament adjourned until early in November, the government is technically "at ease" after many strenuous months, but it is known that many responsible officials and many members of Parliament are giving anxious thought to the forthcoming winter and the unemployment that is certain to present one of the most pressing domestic problems the government will face. When parliament reconvenes it is certain that strong pressure will be brought to bear, particularly by the Labor Party, for the adoption of a definite program for alleviation of unemployment.

In Dire Straits
England is facing for the fourth time a winter in which exceptional measures for the relief of those who are out of work will be necessary. In the opinion of many British leaders the measures taken by Premier Stanley Baldwin's government to alleviate unemployment will be a test of the strength of the present ministry. Just as settlement of the Ruhr situation is the outstanding problem of the government's foreign policy, so unemployment has become the paramount domestic question.

During the winter of 1922-23 there were more than 1,300,000 men and women out of work in the British Isles. For long months the "out of works" marched from city to city, tramped the streets of London and clamored at the doors of the government for relief. Vast sums were expended by the government and by private agencies in relief work, but the measures taken were inadequate to the demands of the situation. At the present time, statistics show there are still 1,185,000 unemployed in the United Kingdom.

Plan Public Works
In the closing days of the last session of Parliament Sir Montagu Barlow, the Minister of Labor, brought forth tentative relief plans involving chiefly the expenditure of huge sums in public works. Sir Montagu said the government already had sanctioned construction schemes involving an expenditure of approximately $150,000,000. Government work of every description is to be accelerated, Sir Montagu said, and every possible inducement given to private enterprise to inaugurate expansion schemes. The railways, for instance, which have reserve funds aggregating $150,000,000, are to be urged to undertake all possible development work. As encouragement to private enterprise the government has undertaken to bear 50 per cent of the interest charges for five years on all revenue-producing development work. Government loans on advantageous terms also are to be provided for private industrial expansion.

WRESTLING IS HEADLINER TONIGHT

'Bull Montana' vs. Hackenschmidt Should Attract Crowd to Legion Card

By ART SHERBORNE
Of The Evening News Staff.
GLENDALE'S major Labor Day sport will be the card to be staged in the new hall at 331 North Brand boulevard tonight under the auspices of Post 127 of the American Legion.

The program will be divided between a wrestling match, which promises to be both spectacular and thrilling, and three fast and snappy boxing bouts which are expected to develop the excitement to the fever pitch. The main event of the occasion will be the grappling match between "Bull Montana" and John Hackenschmidt, which is expected to settle the grudge between them. To make sure that the contest does not drag, the victor is required to get two out of three falls in an hour and a half.

"Hack" Is Local Boy
"Hack" has many friends in Glendale, who predict his victory. He is one of the foremost wrestlers in the world. It is reported that he is making tentative plans to make a trip to Japan this fall in order to practice the art of jiu-jitsu. His last wrestling match was in Riverside on Independence Day. "The Boo!" also has many friends in Glendale who are positive that he will give "Hack" a tough tussle. He says so, too. He is reported to be in excellent condition and recently participated in a wrestling match at Long Beach. As proof of his confidence in his ability to throw his opponent tonight may be mentioned the fact that he offered to bet "Hack" $500 that he could not be thrown, by him.

Featured in Films
Both men have been seen by thousands of movie fans upon the silver screen. In Rex Ingram's production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" "Hack" took the part of the God of War. He was chosen from twenty applicants because of his magnificent physique. He will be seen, also, in a feature picture which is being produced by Ingram. "Bull Montana" is known as "The Burger Faced Comedian". His parents, who live near Milan, Italy, were almost heartbroken when they saw him as a convict in prison role scenes. However, they were somewhat consoled when he made a special trip home, bought them a new home (Continued on page 5)

U.S. STEAMER IS BADLY DAMAGED

Vessel Sailing From San Pedro Is Caught in Japan Disaster

TOMIOKA, Japan, Sept. 3.—The steamer Selma City was badly damaged by the earthquake and tidal wave disturbances Saturday while anchored in Yokohama harbor. Twenty-two feet of water are reported to be in the forward holds. Rescue ships have arrived off Hommoku, just outside of the Yokohama breakwater. The Selma City has on board 189 Japanese men, women and children, including her crew and ship's doctor.

The steamer Selma City sailed from San Pedro for Yokohama on August 11. She is a United States shipping board vessel of 3450 tons.

Early Estimates Give Hundred Thousand Dead

By EDNA LEE BOOKER
For International News Service
SHANGHAI, China, Sept. 3.—(By Radio)—One hundred thousand are dead as a result of the Japanese earthquake and fire horror which is reported to be one of the greatest tragedies of history! This estimate was made in press reports from Japan reaching here late yesterday, the first definite information coming from the stricken empire. Indications are that it is a conservative estimate.

Earthquake, tidal wave, typhoon and fire make the disaster one of the most horrible ever recorded. Uncontrolled blasts of flame are sweeping terror, death and destruction of what is left of two of Japan's greatest cities—Tokio and Yokohama. All efforts to save the Imperial Palace were for naught. In spite of heroic and desperate attempts to prevent the flames from reaching the palace that noble structure symbolical of the history of the empire of Japan is this afternoon a blackened heap of charred ruins. The Imperial family is safe. Shortly after the terrific earthquake yesterday the regent and members of the Imperial family, with retainers and members of the royal household, fled to Nikko.

Hundreds of towns skirting the bay to Fujiyama, the sacred mountain of Japan, were wiped out without trace to show where they once were. Seacoast towns and villages (Continued on page 5)

American Ships Speed to Scene Of Catastrophe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—American destroyers are speeding today to the scene of the great Japanese catastrophe. Definite word that the vessels of the Asiatic fleet are rushing to the stricken cities was received in Washington at 9 o'clock this morning, after a night of fruitless effort to get into communication with the Far East.

NIGHT ATTACK ON U. S. FLEET, PLAN

Legion Convention to See Spectacular Raid on Pacific Warships

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Among the plans under consideration in connection with the convention of the American Legion at San Francisco, October 15 to 19, when an exhibition of craft that fly will be given, together with exhibition night flight, is an attack on the Pacific fleet in San Francisco bay. The project depends on securing the sanction of the authorities, but if this can be had, its attack will call for an aerial defense, coupled with a searchlight display, that will be spectacular in the extreme, it was announced today.

Reed Landis, chairman of national aviation, is working to the end that a comprehensive exhibition of governmental and civilian aircraft may be held close to Exposition Auditorium, where the convention will be held. Landis says the New Orleans convention taught that such an enterprise must be located not far from the convention hall, as the delegates are unwilling to go far from their base of operations.

Will Exhibit Craft
In a letter to R. C. Crevelton, assistant national adjutant of the American Legion, Landis declares it would be of very real value to have an exhibition of aircraft, "because the machines do look much stronger and safer when one is close to them than when they are 2000 or 3000 feet up in the air." Landis is working for an exhibit of army, navy, marine corps and mail planes, together with their performance records, statistics and the like.

Aid Reserve Units
"I would like to have the reserve corps of the army and navy have booths there so that they can get in their propaganda work to promote the progress of the reserves," says Landis "and aid in establishing their reserve units in various parts of the country."

Roy L. Kent Family Visit in 28 States

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Kent and their three children, Wesley, Howard and Ethelyn, have returned to their home at 522 North Central avenue, after a rail and motor trip that took them into twenty-eight different states, including every important city except those south of the Mason-Dixon line, and consumed two and one-half months. The party left Glendale June 14, arriving back September 2. From Glendale, they went to St. Louis by rail, accompanied by Mr. Kent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kent, of 107 Arden street. At St. Louis, the Roy L. Kents purchased a Cadillac motor car and continued on therein, while their parents went by train to Meadville, Pa., where they were joined again later by their son and family. Mr. Kent took many interesting photos on the trip, among them snaps of General John J. Pershing, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Dan Beard, James West and James Schiff, all associated in one way or another with the Boy Scouts of America, whose international convention at Bear Mountain, N. Y., he attended July 9 and 10.

UNPARALLELED FEAR AND PANDEMONIUM REIGNING IN ISLAND OF LIVING DEATH

More Than 100,000 Killed In Yokohama and Tokio; Other Towns Completely Ruined
by Typhoon, Fire and Tidal Wave

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 3.—The state department this afternoon cabled instructions to American Consul-General Milton Johnson, now in Northern China, to proceed at once to Yokohama to ascertain the number of American casualties.

By EDNA LEE BOOKER
For International News Service

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3.—Two additional heavy earthquakes visited Japan today, adding to the already terrorized empire's unparalleled fear and pandemonium. The latest trembling of the earth was responsible for the destruction of the scant remaining homes in the vicinity of Tokio. The scene is described as maddening. Shooting of looters and other persons on the slightest provocation is reported in dispatches. The sea coast town of Odawara was completely overwhelmed and blotted out. The entire population remaining lost their lives.

Buildings in Tokio which withstood terrific earth shocks are being dynamited in order to check the spread of the flames which have been burning continuously since the first earth shocks on Saturday. No means are at hand to alleviate the quick spread of the flames, the water system being demolished when the first severe quake was felt.

Princes Meet Death As Refuse Crumbles Over Imperial Family

Princes Yamahama and Kayoo of the imperial family met death when the building in which they were, crumbled to its foundation. Japanese warships are speeding to the stricken cities to render assistance from Osaka and Kobe. Pacific Mail Steamship Company offices here received a wireless message today from the steamer President Lincoln stating that the steamer Lima Maru, a Japanese vessel, sank in Yokohama harbor. It is not known to what extent the loss of life is.

The Canadian Pacific steamship line here has received no word from its steamers, the Empress of Australia and Empress of Canada, which were in Yokohama harbor when the tidal wave swept Yokohama. Officers of the steamship line expressed the fear that both vessels may have been lost with all passengers on board. Company officials declined to state the number of passengers aboard the two vessels.

Reports from the devastated area are unanimous in the estimate of 100,000 dead, but state that this estimate is conservative and fears are held that when the final check is made the loss of life will be much greater.

Destructive Elements Unite In Annihilation Of Population

An earthquake followed respectively by fire, typhoon and tidal wave Saturday, combined to almost annihilate the population of certain cities of the Japanese empire, principally among them being Yokohama and Tokio. The catastrophe is unprecedented in the annals of modern history.

Up to the present time no word has been received from hundreds of Americans and other foreigners visiting Japan on either business or pleasure trips.

Communication with Tokio, Yokohama and Osaka direct has been shut off since the disaster. The Japanese government wireless station Iwaki at Tomioka and the Pacific cable to Shanghai are the only channels of communication now open. Cables from Shanghai and wireless dispatches from Tomioka to the Radio Corporation of America in San Francisco are being received here infrequently, describing the horror in Japan. The governments of the respective nations of the world today are aiding the stricken populace of Japan. The navy department at Washington ordered the Asiatic fleet to proceed immediately and is now en route to Japan to render assistance. Chinese vessels, with food, water and clothing are nearing the scene of the disaster.

Millions of people in the populous cities in the zone of a one hundred mile radius which was struck hardest by the earth disturbances and subsequent fire, are homeless and without means to sustain life. It is feared that unless relief on a huge scale is provided, disease will not be checked sufficiently to prevent plague. The water mains of the cities of Tokio and Yokohama have been completely destroyed.

At the present time, it is impossible to estimate with any degree of accuracy the total death toll. Indescribable pande- (Continued on Page 8)

SIMPLETONS AND SIGNS DISCUSSED

'Ranger Bill' Finds Weak Cog
In Folks Who Shoot
Promiscuously

By RANGER BILL
United States Forest Service

"Did you ever notice how many people there are who seem to have a weak cog somewhere in their make-up?" said Ranger Bill as he threw a bunch of new enamel signs that had been shot full of holes into a woodshed. "Mind you I don't claim such folks are what you would call 'foolish', but they sure must lack good sense to pull some of the tricks they do. Of course sometimes it's due to thoughtlessness, but pure cussedness would be more like it, I reckon, in a good many cases.

"Who'm I alluding to? Why, just them folks, big and small, that go around shooting up signs and writing their names on rocks and trees and buildings and any old handy place. We get a lot of them up here on the national forests in the summer time—natives and city people and dudes out on a vacation, who either think it's smart to make a pepper box out of a sign or else want to leave a monument to themselves by scribbling all over the landscape. You know that old saying about 'Fools' names' . . . ?

"You think I'm putting it too strong? Well, I don't. If you could trade places with me for a season and see some of the stunts of these vandals, you'd know why I get hot under the Stetson. Let's look at this business with common sense. Here's the forest service and the automobile associations of the state spending a lot of good money each year to put up fine enamel signs so that our own folks and all the people who visit California can tour around in the mountains without getting lost. Then along comes some smart Aleck with a gun and—Bang! Bang!—another sign is shot full of holes and ready for the ash heap. And it isn't only one, but thousands of them that get made into a sieve that-a-way. Seems like these fellows would appreciate rather than depreciate a sign, and think a bit about the people that's coming after. Every time a sign is badly defaced, a new one has to be made and put up, and that means more money and work. Once in a while we catch these birds, and the way the judge usually hands it to them sure does a man's heart good. If there is anyone that ought to get it, and get it good, it's these sign poachers.

Naughty Professor

"Now look at those autograph sharks and some of their artistic work. Why, only last week I found the name of a professor of one of our big state universities scribbled over the newly painted sign of a lookout station up at 10,000 feet. What do you suppose his idea was? If he wanted me to know he'd called why didn't he leave a card or write on a piece of paper?

"If I can tie-in with him I'm sure going to make him back-track up there and scrub that name off the sign. Just you stop and take a peek at that big forest service sign down at the forks of the road. I only put up this spring, and now you'll find a regular telephone directory scratched all over its face. No, sir, it ain't the kids that do this stuff, but real grown up men and women who ought to know enough to respect other people's property.

"A fellow was telling me the other day that the temples in Egypt have all kinds of names scratched on the stones three or four thousand years ago. I always thought we'd kind of advanced in civilization since then, but it 'pears like we've got simpletons in these days same as they had back in King Tut's time."

Delinquent Narcotics
Sellers Decreasing

According to a survey made yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Rex Goodell, covering registrants who hold permits under the federal government to manufacture, dispense and use narcotics in the ten southern counties of California, it was found that there are practically 5,000 of such registrants of all classes in this district.

It was disclosed by this report that there are in the Sixth district of California approximately 275 delinquent registrants who have failed to file the necessary return and receive authorization for the manufacture and administration of narcotics under the Harrison Narcotic act, as against 690 at this time last year, a decrease in the number of delinquents of 60 per cent.

EAGLE ROCK
C. OF C. MEETING
DATED SEPT. 18

Postponement Occasioned
By Labor Day; Many
Topics Before Forum

The open forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce has been postponed from Tuesday, September 18, owing to the intervention of Labor Day, it is announced following a meeting of the directors of the body.

At the time of the open forum meeting, the chief topic of discussion will be transportation when Superintendent DeCape of the schedules department of the Los Angeles Railway Company will address the gathering and present figures to show the present transportation situation, as it affects Eagle Rock.

At the time of the open forum meeting, there will also be present a representative of the Los Angeles fire department, who will talk of the many plans under way for additional fire protection for this community.

The September 18 open forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will probably be held in the Central or Eagle Rock school in order to accommodate the crowds who will doubtless be interested in the defense offered by the L. A. R. C. of their refusal to materially increase transportation for this community.

Lower Utility Rates

Regular city rates for gas and electricity consumption, together with telephone service, will soon be enjoyed by residents of Eagle Rock, according to Walter E. Hind, chairman of the local branch of the Clean Government League, which has started a movement to bring the rates of these commodities down to metropolitan levels.

The following comparisons throw some light on a dark subject, according to Mr. Hind: The Eagle Rock gas rate is 83 cents per thousand, as against 68 cents per thousand in Los Angeles; telephone rates in some cases soar as high as $1.75 over Los Angeles rates; transportation costs 10 cents each way or 20 cents per round trip, while for much longer rides elsewhere in the city only 5 cents is charged; the student rate is 7 1/2 cents per ride or 15 cents per round trip.

Local Notes

Captain H. L. Sydnam, aide to the Secretary of War, for California, has returned with his wife to their home at 120 Lawrence avenue after an inspection of the Citizens' Military training camp at Del Monte, during which the captain presented thirty-seven gold, silver and bronze medals to winners of the various competitions for military and athletic excellence. The medals were donated by citizens and business concerns of California and were in the form of watch fobs.

BURBANK
BOTHERS BURBANK

Senator A. B. Johnson to Talk on 'What Legislature
Did—and Did Not'

Burbank either needs a zoning ordinance or doesn't, one or the other, and should be flat-footed about it and not keep the matter up in the air indefinitely, according to F. S. Webster, city clerk.

Residents besiege his office trying to find out the status of their property, he states. Some of them lose sleep because purchasers are loath to buy when they may be buying "a pig in a poke."

If the city is to have a zoning ordinance, it should get on the job and get one, is the way Mr. Webster feels in the matter; or, if not, it should so announce.

Carry Good News East

Several hundred of the attractive Burbank booklets will be carried east by Mr. and Mrs. David Preston, who have left over the Union Pacific for New York, Philadelphia and other eastern points, taking with them their young son.

In Philadelphia they will visit Mr. Preston's mother, who for the first time will see her grandson. In New York they will visit Mrs. Preston's uncle and aunt, and in Newcastle, Pa., they will visit many old-time friends and relatives.

"All these folks are good Burbank prospects," said Mr. Preston before he left. "We expect to be responsible for bringing a lot of them to this city."

The Prestons will be gone for about six weeks. They left Sunday, September 2. It is their first trip east in five years.

Senator to Speak Here

Senator A. Burlingame Johnson will speak in Burbank September 17, according to Mrs. Margaret Yale, who states that his topic will be "What the Last Legislature Did and What It Did Not."

The address will be given in the Women's clubhouse, under the auspices of the Current Events section.

The Eastern Star picnic that was to have been held Labor Day in Brookside park, Pasadena, has been postponed, it is announced, owing to the fact that the park was engaged for that day and the E. Furthermore, since many of the members would be out of town on that day, it was thought better to set another date, which will be announced later.

OLD HOME TOWN

H. A. Albright Tells About
Teaching 'Red-Head'
Tricks of Trade

By GIL A. COWAN

California seems to be the original "home town reunion." If you only stop to think for a minute, folks, for no matter how small the burg back east, you are sure to find someone else here in the sunny southland who used to live "back where—"

And that's exactly what we are going to write about, for finding old friends is like discovering old jewels. We knew several families when we moved to Glendale ten years ago from Polo, Ill. For instance, there was Claude Berger and Oscar Stees and their families, perhaps others.

Last evening we dropped into the T. D. & L. theatre here and found H. A. Albright managing the house and "back home" Albright was a good name. Conversation led to a comment written some time ago about the Lincoln-Douglas debate at Freeport, Ill.

Tells Experiences

"I used to live back in that country," said Mr. Albright. "Broke into the game operating a motion picture machine at Lena."

"Sure and I used to live in Polo," the writer added.

"Polo—why, that's where I operated a machine in the Majestic theatre that Uncle Billy Shirk ran on Mason street," said the genial Mr. Albright.

"You know," he confided, "I broke in a red-headed 'kid' there and he ran me off of two jobs by working for less money. However, my uncle ran the theatre at Lena and when he hired 'Doug,' who didn't know much about the machine, I left the lens out of focus."

"The optician in town didn't know how to fix it," continued Mr. Albright, "and my uncle thought I had done something dire to his source of income. So he came down to the house that night and, being a deputy sheriff, summarily escorted me to the little theatre and insisted that I give the 'red-head' another free lesson."

Committee Will Fix Movie Income Tax Law

The fact that Los Angeles' most colorful industry, the making of motion pictures, is the fourth largest industry in the United States, was officially recognized by the government in the appointment of a committee by Commissioner of Internal Revenue David H. Blair, that will sit with the big producers and fix a standard for applying the income tax laws to the industry.

New Judges Sworn In
by Superior Jurist

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—Charles S. Crall, presiding judge of the superior court, and L. E. Lampton, county clerk, held a swearing bee Saturday in the former's courtroom. The occasion was the swearing into office of six new court judges, Harry R. Archibald, Ira F. Thompson, C. Walter Guerin, Paul Burks, Hartley Shaw and John L. Fleming, recently appointed by Governor Richardson.

Buttons are now being made from powdered gypsum and, it is said, possess great durability.

INDEX TO COMMUNITY LOYALTY PAGE
PAGE 4 OF THIS ISSUE OF THE EVENING NEWS

Of course when you want to buy merchandise of any kind you are anxious to patronize a Glendale dealer. When you wish to employ professional skill it is your desire to secure a local man. When repair work is needed it is to your advantage to have the work done by mechanics near home. The object of this index column is to refer you to the Glendale Loyalty Page on page 4 of this issue where you will find listed a large number of merchants, tradesmen and professional men who are real boosters for Glendale. While the Community Loyalty Page will appear in The Evening News one day every week, yet readers are advised to cut it out and hold it for reference for the purpose of ascertaining names and locations of business firms in Glendale.

Relation Between Merchant and Buyer Determines Community Growth

There are more than 40,000 people living in Glendale. How much do they spend each day for food, clothing, amusements and the many other things that are necessary to our daily existence? A certain Glendale man says he spends $10 a day, including payments on an investment he has made. This amount is probably far below the average, but let us assume that each person in Glendale spends $10 a day.

Suppose this money, $400,000, all spent in Glendale, and suppose that, instead of being divided into small amounts and distributed among the butcher, the baker and the candle-stick maker each day, the entire sum goes to the butcher the first day, to the baker the next, and so on.

The butcher gets $400,000 of business today, a large amount, but not all profit, by any means. He pays his bills, including what he owes to other Glendale merchants, and then he has enough profit to erect a new building, install better facilities for the care of his meat and make his place attractive and inviting to discriminating housewives. The next day the baker gets the coin. He puts part of the profit back into his business, and with a part he builds a fine home or makes an investment in Glendale.

In their turn, every business and calling represented in the city is the recipient of the daily business for which, of course, value received in merchandise or service is given and every one makes some improvement in his place of business or in his home.

Do not the sum of all improvements and investments mean a Greater Glendale? And is not the result the same if the merchant receives the entire amount in one day or if the business is spread over a month?

Advocates of a Greater Glendale contend with good reason that there is a close relation between the growth of the community and co-operation of merchant and buyer.

THIS page appears in The Glendale Evening News once a week. On another page is a classified index which explains the location of the cards on this page. The building of a greater community sentiment is the purpose of this page. Co-operation between the merchant and the buyer put into actual practice is a community builder.

Glendale, climatic conditions, location relative to the banking center of our mother city and that you compare same with other residential and business sections (also compare prices of business property).

Such study will convince you that Glendale is the truly logical location for a large city of striking individuality, the business property of which will pay good dividends on prices as yet seldom thought of in connection with our city.

DO YOU REALIZE that nothing you obtain is worth the price you pay (be that price great or small) unless into and with it goes something which money can not buy.

By reason of a life time of study and personal observation of the evolution of city real estate —its several classes—and by reason of a life time personal contact with the building of an estate of $11,000-000 wherein a correct knowledge of the evolution of city real estate and community building was applied, we are able to render only that kind of real estate service which builds estates for our clients and a community of stable people.

LOCAL RESIDENT RECALLS QUAKE

W. D. Root of Glendale Tells Of Japanese Temblors He Experienced

Earthquakes are a very common occurrence in Japan, according to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Root of 1630 West Maple street, who have traveled from one end of the other of the Flowery Kingdom.

"Japan has about 1200 quakes a year," Mr. Root remarked yesterday. "Of course, most of these are seismicographic—that is, they are so slight that they are perceptible only to the most delicate instruments.

However, some of the earthquakes are quite a lot to the nervous system, admitted Mr. Root. He is able to recall a dozen or so of them quite vividly.

The recent appalling catastrophe in Japan is by means the only one which has been experienced within the present generation. Mr. and Mrs. Root call attention to a very severe earthquake slightly over twenty years ago in central Japan which caused the death of thousands.

Near the center of the disturbance was Nagoya, a city of about 250,000 people. This was where the loss of life was the greatest. Owing to the fact that so many farmers were killed in the field, and in the villages within a radius of a hundred miles, the exact number of people killed by this quake could never be definitely ascertained.

While in Japan, Mr. Root, who is now connected with the faculty of Jefferson High School, was employed as a teacher first in the Shiga Prefectural School on Lake Biwa, which is the largest lake on the archipelago, and then in the Okura Commercial School.

Mrs. Root, who is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Smart of 110 North Olive street, at that time was Miss Cora S. Smart. She was in Japan in the interest of the temperance crusade.

Edith Hagen, Glendale Girl, Now in Japan

Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Hagen of 634 North Howard street are anxiously awaiting a cablegram from their daughter, Miss Edith G. Hagen, who is now in Japan.

Fortunately, Miss Hagen is believed to be out of the earthquake zone. The last news received from her, she left her home in Tokyo in July, and has been spending the last two months at a popular mountain resort named Karuizawa.

Mr. Hagen returned from Japan in December, 1921, and Mrs. Hagen followed the following July. Both were connected for a number of years with the mission of the Christian church at Tokyo.

They have a multitude of friends in both Tokyo and Yokohama, from whom they are anxiously awaiting word.

Tells of Experience

Although Mr. and Mrs. Hagen never experienced an earthquake as severe as the recent tragedy, they felt many. On one occasion Mrs. Hagen was riding in a street car when first one end and then the other was pushed several feet into the air. Passengers thought first of a collision, but it was only another quake.

Miss Edith Hagen is a graduate of Glendale Union High school. She went to Japan four years ago, and is now teaching in the Margaret K. Long school for girls at Tokyo. She is expected home next summer upon a visit.

Rev. and Mrs. Julius Soper of 1305 North Maryland avenue also have numerous friends in Japan. For thirty-nine years Rev. Soper was connected with the Aoyama Gakuin Methodist school at Tokyo, which is one of the oldest missionary schools in the kingdom. Their daughter, Miss Maud E. Soper, who is now head of the high school history department, was born in Japan.

Miss Hazel Linkogel Returns From Studies

Miss Hazel Linkogel of 560 Riverdale drive, Glendale's talented young violinist, the first young artist beneficiary of the Glendale Music club, arrived home Saturday after three months in the east, where she spent seven weeks studying under Leopold Auer, master violin instructor.

It was through the aid given her by the Glendale Music club that Miss Linkogel was able to go to Chicago to enter the tryouts for the scholarship under Prof. Auer. In the final tryout Miss Linkogel and a student of Mr. Auer's from New York were chosen.

From Chicago, where Miss Linkogel came west to Texas and spent four weeks with her sister Mrs. E. E. Gossrau in Galveston.

Miss Linkogel and her sister Mrs. Pearl G. Curran are awaiting the arrival of their mother, Mrs. Jennie Linkogel from the north, and then they will enjoy a vacation outing at Redondo beach.

2 Burglaries Reported On N. Howard Street

Two burglaries, which occurred early last night on Howard street between Doran street and Lexington drive, are being investigated by the police. One was at 531 Howard street, in the home of C. P. Clark. The family returned about 9 o'clock and were surprised to find the front door open. It is believed that the burglar had just started to ransack the home when he was frightened away. The other burglary occurred at 503 Howard street, in the residence of Mrs. Mary LaBau. A screen was ripped off a bedroom window and two bedrooms were ransacked.

RADIO FIRST TO GIVE TRAGIC NEWS

Powerful Iwaki Station of Japanese Government Safe From Quake

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—One of the amazing and outstanding features of the Japanese catastrophe is the escape of the Iwaki wireless station at Tomoka, on the east coast of Japan, 144 miles northeast of Tokio, in spite of the height of its towers which rise 660 feet into the sky.

Through the Iwaki station came the first news of the earthquake, fire, tidal wave and typhoon which leveled Tokio and Yokohama last Saturday. The news was picked up by the powerful Bolinas plant of the Radio Corporation of America, just north of San Francisco.

T. Yonemura is the Japanese radio operator at Iwaki who flashed to a dazed world the first details of the horrible disaster which befell his country.

The Iwaki plant at Tomoka includes a receiving station and a transmitting station, twenty-four miles apart, and is normally linked up with Tokyo by land lines. These land wires, however, have been severed by the earthquake and today the only communication between Tomoka and the capital of Japan is by courier.

Iwaki station, which is owned and operated by the Japanese government, has a traffic agreement with Radio Corporation of America.

Lesson From Episode About Sleeping Boy

The rather striking story of the young man who fell asleep and fell out of the window while the Apostle Paul was preaching a protracted sermon, was made into a unique lesson by Keith L. Brooks, who spoke to the Presbyterian Brotherhood class at the City Hall, Sunday morning at 9:30. The lesson was based upon the twelfth chapter of the book of Acts. He said, in part:

"When Paul came to Troas he was surrounded by a large company of believers, who had many questions concerning the faith to put to him in the limited time which he could spend with them. In the midst of his interesting exposition, some shrieks were heard in the rear of the room and it was found that a youth by the name of Eutychus had fallen asleep and dropped out of the window from the third story. When Paul and perhaps all the congregation hastened down to him, they took him up dead.

"I would call your attention to a striking statement in the midst of this story: 'There were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together.' Why are those words inserted in the midst of this exciting account? One commentator says: 'Christianity has no dark scenes. Another says: "They had many lights so the hearers

Women Know Everything
To Be Found In Books,
While Men Blunder AlongBy H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff.

WHAT do Glendaleans read? And who? And why? These questions, addressed to a large number of local folk, produced some astounding replies. It seems that the literary taste of this city today ranges the whole gamut from the "Rover Boys" and the "Elsie" books to "Thus Spake Zarathustra" and Plutarch's Lives!

Among fiction books, those most read at the moment are "The Mine With the Iron Door," "The Alaskan," "North of 36," "Black Oxen" and "One of Ours," while "Babbitt," the sequel to "Main Street," which in some ways is akin to Mark Twain's "Gilded Age," continues to be well up in the list and bids fair ultimately to be perused by all our "men with a vision" and "forward thinkers," "right thinkers" and the like, which is rather a delectable prospect, as it will afford them, as Burns so aptly said, an opportunity to "See ourselves as others see us," incidentally adding to their store of saving grace, no doubt, a sense of humor.

Adds New Jargon

The one book from "over the pond" that continues to attract Glendale readers in large droves is "It Winter Comes," the one recent tome that has added to the American dialect a new line of jargon!

Of the non-fiction books avidly read in this city, those dealing with some phase of psychology are the leaders, with volumes on religion running a close second. "The Mind in the Making," exemplifies the former category. "The Life of Christ" the latter.

And then there are the old-timers who, like death and taxes, are always with us—Gene Stratton-Porter, Harold Bell Wright, Zane Gray, James Oliver Curwood, Edgar Rice Burroughs, Ralph Connor, Rex Beach, Rupert Hughes, Kathleen Norris, Ethel M. Dell, Mary Roberts Rinehart, and a myriad more, the vast majority of whom, strangely—or not so strangely—are natives of the great southwest, "where men are men."

Schools' Double
Shift Problem
For W. A. Howe

SPLIT school sessions in both Glendale high and grammar grades has presented a problem for William A. Howe, manager of the Glendale Theatre, to solve.

The ten cent students' matinee, which is a popular feature of the week's program would keep about half of the children from seeing the show. As a result he has requested that lists of those attending in the afternoon be furnished him by the school authorities.

To these several hundred youngsters he will issue special passes, after school starts, entitling them to see the evening performance on Tuesdays for a dime.

SOUTH GLENDALE
AVE. CARS SOONMontrose Line Official Says
Service Will Be Extended
By First of Year

Street cars will be running on South Glendale avenue before the first of the year, according to a promise made this morning by P. L. Hatch, general manager of the Glendale & Montrose railway.

The Westinghouse Electric company of Schenectady, N. Y., which is now manufacturing the fifty-ton $30,000 electric locomotive, has written that it may be expected a month earlier than originally scheduled. It is being rushed to completion in order that it may be placed on exhibition between October 8 and 12 in Atlantic City, N. J., at the American Electric Railroad convention. It is expected to require about six weeks to make the transcontinental journey. Mr. Hatch expects delivery on the passenger cars and the power house equipment meanwhile.

'COVERED WAGON'
TICKET SALE TO
OPEN TOMORROWGlendale Night at Egyptian Theatre Is Fixed for Tuesday, Sept. 11

Arrangements for the sale of tickets for Glendale night at "The Covered Wagon" have been completed, and the coveted pasteboards will go on sale in the office of The Glendale Evening News tomorrow, Tuesday, September 4, at 9 a. m. one week in advance of the date set for Glendale night at Sid Grauman's Egyptian Theatre in Hollywood. Details for the co-operation of the Pacific Electric in the plan to furnish transportation to Hollywood, permitting those going to see "The Covered Wagon" to make the trip without charge of cars, are practically completed and will be announced tomorrow, according to George A. Boyer, exploitation manager and transportation for Mr. Grauman.

Inquiries that have been coming to this office in advance of the date fixed for the ticket sale to commence indicate that a large number of local people will take advantage of the occasion to witness this moving picture masterpiece, which has been staged on a scale seldom, if ever, before attempted by any producer, and preliminary estimates set the Glendale attendance at over one thousand persons.

Lavish Production

Beside setting a record for the length of its run, "The Covered Wagon" has been produced with a lavishness that has already made moving picture history and that has set a standard for future pictures to shoot at. The atmosphere that is thrown around the production by the appearance of close to two hundred Indians, in full tribal dress, aids materially in furnishing a pageant of the plains that reproduces with the minutest accuracy the conditions that prevailed when the first wagon trains filled with white settlers battled their long and arduous way across the uncharted regions of the west, at a time when one of the most stirring chapters in the history of California and of the United States was about to be unfolded before the eyes of the world.

The preservation of Emerson Hough's masterpiece in the films, for the information and entertainment of future generations, is a tribute that was justly due to a man who placed America and its heroic history, as told in the deeds of those valiant pioneers who blazed the trails into the west and founded an empire here, among the world's greatest accomplishments, and who strove, with tongue and pen, to perpetuate the traditions established by the heroes of that period of the nation's development.

Old Days Recalled

Not alone is "The Covered Wagon" a pictorial masterpiece in its film form, but the additional features embodied in its presentation make of it a dramatic entertainment of the highest order. The music, recalling the songs that were known and loved by the grandfathers and grandmothers of the present generation, the presentation of what now seem to be quaint customs of the long ago, the simplicity and stern qualities that were characteristic of the pioneers who built America, all are shown in a manner that stirs the pride of those who call themselves Americans, making of "The Covered Wagon" not only a picture but an actual reproduction of an epic in the nation's history.

California's Eden Seen
In Film Coming Here

The garden spot of California, known to globe trotters and tourists as "California's Eden," will be seen when "Bluebeard's 8th Wife," a Sam Wood production for Paramount, starring Gloria Swanson, is presented at the T. D. & L. Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday.

This beautiful country is at Monterey on the Pacific ocean. Critics who have studied the scenes call them the most marvelous examples of photography ever flashed on a screen.

Manager H. A. Albright recommends this film, which has made a smashing success in the larger cities, as one of the best in the Paramount week-end offerings which are crowding the T. D. & L.

Jayhawkers Will Have Jolly Picnic Reunion

All who ever lived in Kansas are called to meet for a great picnic reunion all day Saturday, September 8, 1923, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles. There will be county registers and headquarters so all may find the old neighbors even with ten thousand present.

There will be a brief program, opening about 2 o'clock—songs, short talks, roll call. All the tourists and visitors from the old home state will be made welcome and may meet thousands of old-time friends.

Coffee will be served free to all who buy the souvenir badges.

Many Glendale people are expected home from their vacations tomorrow, Labor Day, being the last holiday before the opening of schools here.

Glendale Union High school's term commences September 11, while the city schools will open on September 17. During the summer months, however, a very liberal education has been accorded the young people here in travel trips.

It is estimated that fully thirty per cent of Glendale's population took from one week to three months' vacation, the most popular place other than the beaches being Yosemite National Park according to those who know.

Nothing like the enormous flow of visitors to the national parks this year ever has been recorded before in the history of the "travel industry" of this country.

Seeing America First
It was not so many years ago when Americans naturally headed for Europe when they wanted to feast on scenery and to study new lands, but now they know that America contains more varied scenery than any other country on earth and that a trip through the west is more of an education than anything Europe can offer. The commercial result is that the "travel industry," that is the business of transporting and accommodating these visitors, has grown to such proportions that it probably ranks among the leading wealth producers of the nation, and particularly California.

Total travel to the national parks this year will be more than 1,500,000 visitors. Final figures are not yet available, as the gov- (Continued on page 4)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 3.—Miss Carmelita Geraghty is not a stranger around the picture studios, as her father is Thomas Geraghty, supervising director for the name. Mr. Geraghty is Irish, but Carmelita's mother is Spanish and related to Benjamin DeCasseres, poet, essayist and satirist. This Span-Italian combination would be hard to beat and it is no wonder that Miss Carmelita, the "Baby Star" as she has been called, is making a name for herself in pictures.

She plays a society ingenue role in Cosmopolitan's coming production of "The Daughter of Mother McGinn," and also has a part in Mary Pickford's new picture, "Roxie." She is now appearing in Maurice Tourneur's production, "Jealous Fools."

Tom Moore, one of the most sought after leading men on the west coast, plays opposite Viola Dana in the Rita Weiman story, "Roughed Up." Malcolm McGregor, Huntly Gordon, Cyril Chadwick and Edna Flinbaugh, Miss Dana's sister, support the dainty Metro star in "The Social Code," another Weiman story. The cast which adds Miss Dana in her picturization of Kate Jordan's story, "In Search of a Thrill," includes Warner Baxter, Rosemary Theby, Robert Schable, Mable Van Buren, Templar Saxe, Billy Elmer and Leo White.

This business of "local boy makes good" means covering a lot of ground, Buster Keaton finds. The frozen-faced comedian, now appearing before the camera in his first five-reel feature film for Metro release, "The Three Ages," recently received five clippings from newspapers in Michigan, Arizona and Kansas, each claiming Buster as a local product.

"It doesn't seem possible," commented Keaton.

Mae Murray, whose recently completed picture, "The French Doll," is one of the first releases of the Metro fall program, has started work on her newest Metro picture, "Fashion Row," according to announcements.

Powder puffs that "pat" the powder, made of small brittle feathers, to relieve the "shine" of glossy feathers, are formed on the inner edge of claws of the barn owl, English pigeon and hawk.

Chambray And Gingham Do Very Nicely

The romper suit is a blessing to mother and child. It is easily made of inexpensive materials, allows unlimited use of the little limbs, is easily laundered and always looks well. The one illustrated is made of blue chambray, is bound with blue and white checked gingham and has a touch of hand embroidery on the facing of the pocket.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am an undecided girl. There is a young gentleman who is deeply in love with me. Somehow I cannot return his love. This young man would do anything within his power to keep steady company with me. He would let me go anywhere or with anyone, however, before he would see me unhappy. It was through this young man I met another for whom I care more. The second fellow says he cares a lot for me, but at times I doubt his word. He is a jealous-hearted man and gets angry every time I go to a dance or any place where I can enjoy myself. Yet he won't take me there. He is even jealous of my employer.

Please tell me which man I should keep company with, and why. UNDECIDED. My advice is to keep company with both of the young men, since the first one is such a loyal friend and you care so much for the second. Probably in time you will grow tired of the second because he has qualities which do not promote happiness. You realize, of course, that your chance of happiness is greater with the first young man, because his is an unselfish love. I do not advise you to give up the second for him, however, because you do not love him enough. It may be that the good qualities of the first young man will make you learn to love him, but on the other hand you may never learn to care any more than you do now. Perhaps your future has some one else in store for you. Therefore I would not advise you to make a choice until you are confident you love the man and can be happy with him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am troubled over the condition of my scalp. Eight years ago I had such thick hair and now I have hardly any. The top of my head is sore all the time and my hair comes out by handfuls. I think the starting of it was putting my hair up wet with a cap on after swimming.

I have used all kinds of hair tonic and they seem to make it worse. Will massage make the scalp more sore or will it overcome the soreness? What can be done to overcome this soreness and the falling of the hair? Can nervousness cause this soreness? I am twenty-six years old.

TROUBLE. Nervousness is very likely the cause of your trouble. As your nerves and physical condition improve, the condition of your scalp will also improve. I would advise you to consult a physician and build up generally.

There is no hair tonic which brings about more satisfactory results than mange cure. Since your scalp is so sore, however, I doubt if you could use anything so strong at present. Massage will be beneficial although it may be painful in the beginning. Red vaseline is soothing and healing and it promotes the growth of hair and therefore I would advise you to use it on your finger tips when you massage, a thing which should be done gently every night for a while.

I am confident that you can overcome the bad condition of your scalp if you work with the matter. It is imperative, however, to consult a physician and improve your general health.

Dear Mrs. Thompson. I am invited to a "foolish shower" which is to be given for a boy friend who is going to Canada to be married and take up work there. The girl who is giving the shower said she couldn't think of anything for a man in the way of a shower and so she thought if each one brought a foolish gift it would be fun.

I have tried to think of something to take, but I can't. What would you advise in this case? DOROTHY. A foolish shower is something new to me. You might take a toy set of dishes or furniture or a doll's knife, fork and spoon. The toys would represent articles necessary for the establishing of his home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When I am writing a letter or anything my sister-in-law always tries to read or find out to whom I am writing. Do you think this any of her business? She gets very angry if I say anything to her or tell her I think it is not her affair.

GRAE. Your sister-in-law has no business prying into your affairs, unless you are living with her and in her charge. Of course if you are living with her and not with your own parents she probably feels that it is necessary to interest herself in your correspondence. In case she has no claim on you, go away by yourself when you write and do not put yourself in the way of trouble.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PEACH

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping far, far, away from his hollow stump bungalow, looking for an adventure, the rabbit gentleman heard a rustling in the bushes.

"Oh, ho!" whispered Mr. Longears to himself. "Perhaps that is some bad animal coming out to nibble my ears! I must be careful."

So Uncle Wiggily waited anxiously, but no one came out of the bushes.

"Hello in there, whoever you are?" cried the bunny rabbit uncle. "Come out and show yourself! You can't scare me!"

Then the bushes rustled again and out came Tommy Kat, the pussy boy.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I thought you might be the Fuzzy Fox or the Woosie Wolf."

"Well, I'm glad I'm neither one," answered Tommy Kat, who was carrying something in one paw.

"I'm glad, also," said Uncle Wiggily. "But what have you there, Tommy, my boy?" asked Mr. Longears. "Have you been picking apples off a mulberry bush?"

"No," laughed the pussy cat chap, "but I picked a peach off a peach tree, and I'm taking it home to my sister Kittie who is ill."

"That is very kind of you," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "I'll walk along with you while you take your peach to your sister. And when I get to your house I'll tell her a little bedtime story to make her laugh."

"That will be fun," mewed Tommy Kat. "And, may I also listen to the story?"

"Oh, yes," answered Uncle Wiggily.

Then he and Tommy went along together, over the fields and through the woods. They were almost at Tommy's house, and Uncle Wiggily was thinking up a story to tell Kittie when all of a sudden, there was another rustling in the bushes.

"Hello!" whispered Uncle Wiggily. "Some one is here! Do you suppose it could be your brother Joie, or your sister Kittie?"

"No," mewed Tommy. "Kittie is ill and Joie has gone to my grandpa's."

"Then, perhaps this is the Woosie Wolf or the Fuzzy Fox," said Uncle Wiggily, "so we must be careful. Hide down behind this log with me, Tommy, and I'll find out who is rustling the bushes."

So the rabbit gentleman and the little pussy cat hid down behind the log and then Uncle Wiggily, looking slyly over the top of the fallen tree, called:

"Come out! Come out! Whoever you are, come out, you Woosie Wolf!"

But no Woosie Wolf came out. "Come out! Come out! Whoever you are, come out, you Fuzzy Fox!" cried Uncle Wiggily.

But no Fuzzy Fox came out. "Come out! Come out! Who-

A COURSE IN RADIO—CHAPTER 20—MEASURING INSTRUMENTS

The most simple instrument for measuring current is the galvanometer shown in Fig. 1, and consists of a coil of wire suspended between the pole pieces of a permanent magnet—something like an electric motor. When a small current passes through the coil which is suspended, the coil tends to move; a twisting force will be exerted upon it which depends on the amount of current flowing through the coil. A pointer is fastened to the coil and moves over a graduated scale showing the amount of current flowing. In expensive instruments jeweled bearings are used so as to procure accurate measurements.

Figure 2 shows a design of either a voltmeter or ammeter. You will note they resemble a galvanometer. The operating principle is the same, but their design differs. Some instruments are combined volt and ammeters, depending on how they are connected to the circuit. This by the way is very important, as the ammeter is of very low resistance, while the voltmeter is of high resistance. It is here that their difference lies. The voltmeter has a very high resistance connected in series with it. Voltmeters are always connected in shunt to the thing to be measured, while the ammeter is always connected in series. Think what would happen were an ammeter (low resistance) connected across a battery or house current lines. You have probably guessed it, it would be a short circuit and the fuses would blow. A voltmeter on the other hand, if connected in series with a low potential circuit, would not allow sufficient current to pass through its windings, and if connected to a heavy current line it would have its windings damaged. So keep these two things in mind: the ammeter is connected in SERIES and the voltmeter in SHUNT. The ammeter has a shunt which allows most of the current to pass through it instead of its windings. Only a very small amount of current passes through the windings.

which registers the power flowing in a circuit. Every home with electricity in it has one. Get up on a chair and look at it. The standard type has four dials, numbered from 0 to 9. There is a narrow disk that slowly revolves when any of the lights are used in the house and which runs so slow you can barely notice it, and for this reason it has a small black mark on it to denote its revolutions. Reading these numbers seems to mystify most people, but they are simple. Figure 3 shows the four dials numbered from 0 to 9, with pointers at various places. The pointer must pass a number before it counts. The reading of the meter would be 2468.

A commercial type of wattmeter is shown in Figure 4. It consists of two coils, one connected in series with the line and the other in shunt. The coil in shunt to the line has a high resistance in series with it and is the potential coil and is moveable, while the current coil is fixed. When current is flowing the magnetic fields set up in the two coils react on each other in such a manner that the moveable coil tends to move into a parallel position with the stationary coil. There is a pointer attached to the voltmeter coil which moves over a graduated scale so as to measure either watts or kilowatts, depending which it is calibrated for.

Frequency meters are used to indicate the frequency of alternating current. In one type a number of reeds having various vibrating frequencies are arranged in such a manner that an alternating current flowing through it will cause the reed having a corresponding frequency to vibrate.

Pointers

When you vary your coupling it will require a variation of your condenser.

Vacuum tubes go dead occasionally, and usually the tube is defective. Take it back to your dealer for replacement.

It is economy to use two dry cells connected in parallel with your WD-12 tube.

$30,000 Addition Sought for Community Edifice in Verdugo Hills

Pledges amounting to $3000 were given at the Tujunga Community church toward the building fund for an addition to the church building as it now stands. Additional room is needed and plans have been drawn for a 72 x 74 foot, one-story and basement, with an estimated cost of approximately $30,000. Ten thousand of this sum will be realized from the sale of a tract of land that has been allotted, with conditional provisions, to the church. Following the morning service Dr. J. W. Stotts, pastor, described the proposed building as far as the plans have progressed and presented a chart he had prepared, arranged in squares. There were 200 of these and each one represents a pledge of $100 to be signed by members of the congregation who wish to contribute. $5000 Now Available Dr. Stotts stated that in his estimation they would be justified in going ahead with the work, as there is about $5000 already available. He expressed hopes to have excavating work begin soon and if the responses are prompt and generous the building might be completed within the next church year, which commences on October 1. If funds are not available during the year for the entire building, plans are to build the basement and cover the floor of the first story over it with roofing paper to provide a roof until the work could go forward. The basement, as planned, will have a seating capacity of 700 and will be used for a Sunday school class room. Estimates show that the proposed basement will cost about $5000.

"The Covered Wagon," Sid Grauman, proprietor of the Hollywood Egyptian Theatre, is following out a definite plan of arranging that residents of various cities in this section may have an opportunity to witness the performance without the trouble and the long wait incident to making a trip into Los Angeles to secure tickets, standing in line at the box office, and taking whatever seats may be left on the night they desire to attend the show. City for its peculiar "bohemian" charm, has some interesting theories on reading, with particular application to this city and surroundings.
"The movies have done much to stimulate reading," says Dr. Estock. "Books moveized are books resurrected, that for a brief period once more have their life, and the sensation thereof. The subject of the story of a 'best seller' on the silver screen—and, like the immortal Phoenix rising from its own ashes, that book leaps into the public eyes and is eagerly sought on the shelves of bookshops the country over."
"So true is this that publishers have learned to capitalize on it, issuing reprints, coincident with film release, more books frequently being sold in this manner than were disposed of when the volume was in its first heyday."
Another interesting theory of Dr. Estock answers the second query at the head of this article. Who read books?
"The women read them," according to Dr. Estock, who has observed that by far the greater majority of his customers are of the "so-called 'fair sex,'" as he says. "In our day it is the women who do most of the reading, the learned doctor goes on. 'And it would appear that if this 'sacred' world is ever to be redeemed, it will be due largely to the women—for they have read enough to know what is wrong with it, whereas the men are blundering along and fighting a lot of wars trying to find out!'"
As to why Glendaleans read, or why people anywhere else read, for that matter, the doctor is non-committal, leaving the writer to hazard the guess that it is to satisfy, perhaps, that innate curiosity of mankind to know what is going on behind drawn curtains!

VALLEY NEWS

MUCH ROAD WORK DONE IN VALLEY

Long Neglected La Crescenta and Tujunga Districts Are Benefited

A season of important road improvement work comes to a close this week when the county road department crew under Foreman Kurst finishes the last job in the Verdugo Hills district and moves on to other territory waiting to have the roads ironed out. Ocean View avenue, from Honolulu avenue south to Sparr Heights, is being given the finishing touches and is now in first-class shape. Sparr Heights developers and promoters are understood to have promised to finish the link through their tract to Verdugo road upon the completion of the county's work. This will leave but a short section of Ocean View unopened, north from Honolulu to Montrose avenue.

Six weeks has all the time required by the road crew to finish grading and paving Pennsylvania avenue from Michigan avenue to Honolulu avenue. The surface is now in excellent condition, and this route finds favor with many drivers through the valley. It provides an easy grade and eliminates several turns encountered on the highway and is not, as a rule, as heavily traveled.

Heavily Traveled
Residents of the districts where road work has been done this year are well pleased with the general results of the county's efforts to establish a better system of roads. Many important streets and highways have been resurfaced and placed in good condition again. Vigorous efforts will be made by the various chambers of commerce and improvement associations to have extensive work done next year, so that the street systems will be complete.

A big increase in traffic through the valley is anticipated for next year with the increasing popularity of the various canyons and parks, from the Monte Vista park at the west end of the valley at Sunland and Big Tujunga canyon to Verdugo Woodlands and the various parks in that vicinity that are fast developing into increasingly popular resorts.

It is largely through the development of good roads that Montrose and neighboring communities have made such tremendous strides in the past two years. Good roads and live chambers of commerce will put the towns over. They already have the chambers of commerce, and these organizations are fast getting the roads.

Vacation Season Is Drawing to Close

ernment's travel year, or statistical period, does not close until September 30, but the result can be forecast with confidence.
Yosemite vs. Yellowstone
Yosemite in California and Yellowstone in Wyoming, again are running neck-and-neck for first honors among the parks. Yellowstone passed the 100,000 mark about August 15. Yosemite had welcomed 115,978 visitors on August 26. Both parks expected a final total of more than 130,000. While most of the national semite remains open every day in parks close in September, Yosemite and thus gains a distinct advantage in the attendance race, as the gay winter-season attracts several thousand visitors, particularly Californians eager for the novelty of snow sports.

Germans, who before the war constituted 30 per cent of the tourists in Switzerland, are seldom seen there today.

LA CRESCENTA

HAVE OPENING OF NEW SUBDIVISION

Demand for Property Aids Sales of New Tracts, Owners Declare

A new subdivision situated on Pennsylvania avenue, just below Michigan, is enjoying a pre-opening sale over the week end and today, Labor Day. The name of the tract is to be La Crescenta Heights and it is owned by F. D. Warner. Sub-divisions are opening up all over the valley and the owners apparently have no difficulty in disposing of the lots. Swami Paramananda of Vendant Center was so far recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia as to be able to conduct his services Sunday at 4 p. m. The Swami has made five trips across the continent since March and this, coupled with the strain of overseeing the buildings and renovations of the Pennsylvania avenue home, are partially the reason for his breakdown and illness of five weeks. The services are always held outdoors on the grassy terrace overlooking the city valley.

Dr. Smith and daughter, Miss Ethelyn, moved from this community today. They will reside in Huntington Park, where Miss Smith will have charge of the dramatic art section of the schools.

Schofield Keppel, nephew of Mrs. Jennings Young, is traveling east to St. Louis to visit relatives there.

Mrs. Angier has received word from her husband, who is in Minneapolis visiting his parents, that he will start home next week, stopping off for a visit of the Grand canyon on the way.

Conclude Hearing

The hearing of the petition on the Verdugo Hills Transportation company to operate their stages over Pennsylvania and Honolulu avenues in La Crescenta, begun before the State Railroad commission on August 23, was concluded last week and an early decision is expected.

At this recent hearing, after a conference between the stage company and the Glendale & Montrose railway officials, the former amended its application so as to omit the privilege of soliciting patronage over the route covered by the requested new franchise. In consideration of the amendment no objection was offered by the Glendale & Montrose railway, whose proposed extension from Los Angeles avenue to Pennsylvania avenue might otherwise have been quite hard hit by stage competition.

Under the amended petition the chief or only advantage to the stage company will be a saving in time by shortening the distance between Tujunga and Montrose, using the easy grade and short cut afforded by the newly paved Pennsylvania avenue.

Ask Fire Districts
On Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock in the Hall of Records in Los Angeles, the county supervisors will hear the petitions for the formation of the La Crescenta, Sunland and Tujunga Valley fire protection districts. So far as known no objection has been raised in either district and if none develops the supervisors may organize them without an election. If objections arise it may be necessary to call an election, thereby securing the vote of the residents of the valley on the question.

Mrs. Lewis has left the Mount where she, with her son, Mark Lewis, and his nurse, Miss Camille, have been domiciled for several months. Mark Lewis will spend the winter in Palm Springs, while Mrs. Lewis journeys to New York for the season.

MONTH HUNTING TRIP

William Neugebauer of 702 East 21st avenue, accompanied by Henry A. Stevens of Hollywood, left Saturday on a month's camping and hunting trip in the Shasta region. The young men will return in time to attend the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons in Los Angeles, where they have just completed a summer course.

Delay Arrests Under New Motor Statutes

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—The old rule that ignorance of the law is no excuse was temporarily abandoned in Southern California, at least where the new motor vehicle act was concerned. Many cities reported that they had not received any copies of the new law and would not make arrests until they did. In Los Angeles the police gave motorists an additional day in which to become acquainted with the new regulations.

At a commercial fair at San Sebastian, Spain, all the space devoted to automotive exhibits was taken by American cars.
